

The Gas Pump Blues

Copyright © 2008

Harlan K. Brown

Bass

1. Gas - o - line — pri - ces keep — go - ing — up, and I
2. A - mer - i - ca's sit - ting on an o - cean of oil in A -
3. We have - n't built a brand new oil re - fi - ner - y since don't — know — what — to do. — Pol - i - ti - cians blame the oil — C - E - O's, and — las - ka and the Flo - ri - da shore, But Cong - ress won't al - low our drill - ing oil out there e - ven nine - teen sev - en - ty - six. We have a se - rious prob - lem in our home - land here, and it's that is noth - ing new, But when you look and fol - low the — mon - ey trail — to — though we're u - sing more. Some peo - ple say crea - tures are our mil - lionth cou - sins ten some - thing we can fix. We need to cut de - mand for oil and gas - o - line in the see — where did it — go, You find the tax col - lec - tors and the O - pec o - gres — thou - sand times re - moved, But I say he who thinks the ca - ri - bou's our kin has a coun - try and in the town, But we al - so need to drill the oil with which we're blessed, and the sit - tin' on piles of dough. — I've got the gas pump blues. I feel them all day brain that's strange - ly grooved.

pri - ces will come down.

long. Those gas pains are worse than in - di - ges - tion. That's why I'm sing - ing this song. — — Those gas pains are worse than in - di - ges - tion. That's why I'm sing - ing this song.